

Documenting the Family Wealth

What if you took the time to document your parent's lives? How much do you think you know about them... how much, besides your own memories do you have to pass down to your family?

What if you could get together with your entire extended family and document their lives? What impact would this have on your family connection?

Building the true family wealth to pass onto future generations

Wouldn't it be nice to ask your parents, grandparents and favorite family members...

1. What was your childhood like?
2. What did you want to be when you grew up?
3. What goals have you fulfilled? Not fulfilled?
4. How did you meet mom/dad?
5. When did you know you were going to get married?
6. What is it about the other person that made you fall in love?
7. Were you ever in love before?
8. How did you feel when I/brother/sister was born?
9. What were you most afraid of in life?
10. What memory do you have that means the most to you?
11. What do you regret?
12. What were your parents like?
13. What were you like as a child?
14. Who was/is your best friend?
15. What was your first date?
16. Where did you propose to mom/dad?
17. What was your first job?
18. What is your earliest memory?
19. How would you describe your personality?
20. How would you describe your humor?
21. What would you encourage us to do or not to do?
22. What do you think is the best trait you passed down to us?
23. What was your favorite trip/vacation?
24. What is your greatest strength?
25. What is your greatest weakness?

Video tape this special occasion and you will create a cherished family heirloom for all generations to come.
